

► Infographics: Communicating through images and graphics

Category: free self-training courses
Digital tools for educators 3.0
Active and permanent offer
Direct access link to the capsule

Elija un bloque de creación.

Objectives:

Develop skills for the creation of infographics for didactic purposes. Through the proposed learning path you will learn:

- To know the concept of infographics, its types and the elements that compose it.
- Develop skills for the creation of infographics.
- Reflect on the use of infographics in education.
- Explore online tools for the creation of infographics.
- Produce an infographic for didactic purposes.

Addressed to:

People from any area interested in the use of digital tools, leaders, coordinators and educators.

Participant effort:

On average, at least 04 hours of effective virtual work per capsule to be carried out in a self-managed way, the participant is responsible for consulting the training material and complying with the activities for the consolidation of knowledge.

Certification:

Digital certificates of participation are issued with the endorsement of the International Federation of Fe y Alegría and its virtual school.

The content outline for this capsule is divided into three parts: Reflection, Practice and Closing, the latter includes a reading test that you must pass in order to download the certificate. Esta propuesta formativa es gracias a:

How to access this course:

If you are already a user of our Virtual School, log in and select the training capsule you want to take and self-enroll. If you are not yet registered, fill in the form HERE.

